Led by Mr Paul Steadman

6.30 pm, Q Café Worship: "Big Questions"

Led by A Panel of Three

Student Minister - From Sunday 27 May to Sunday 17 June there will be a student minister on placement with Deborah. He is Stuart Dyer, from Haywards Heath.

Q Café Worship: "Big Questions" - Next Sunday at 6.30 pm - At the next Q Service there will be a panel of three people attempting to answer your questions. The panel will consist of:-

Mr Tony Leonard, a member of Dorset Gardens and organist.
Mr Stuart Dyer, a student minister on placement here at DG.
Revd Deborah Cornish, your own, your very own minister (nearly!)

To help the evening run smoothly please send your questions by the morning of Thursday 31 May to Angela in the office. Deborah will then collect them on Thursday lunchtime, collate them and organise a running order. It would be good to have a broad range of questions, so we can stretch our little grey cells - and yours. As usual we will also have music and food.

Note of Appreciation - The AA LGBT Thursday Evening Group have thanked us in a recent email saying "thank you and how much we appreciate the front desk staff and the facilities at the church".

General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR) - The new GDPR comes into force on 25 May 2018. The Church & Circuit is legally obliged to operate within these regulations. In preparation for this, at DG we need to ascertain who holds information on members of the congregation and why (a mapping exercise). Angela has contacted the various church groups to start this process.

Gift Day 2018 - Gift Day letters and envelopes are still available (just see Alan Cutting). Please could Pastoral Visitors take a copy to members on their list who are unable to attend church.
